WHAT RYLARIANS SAY

- “I came to be a better leader. I am leaving a better person.”
- “There are two most important days of your life. The first is the day you are born, and the second is the day you figure out why. What I’ve learned from RYLA is my ‘why’.”
- “RYLA: The best four days ever.”
- “RYLA is the only place where I’ve stopped having fun to have even more fun.”
- “This a place where you feel at home, because the people here become your family.”
- “I have never in my life felt completely accepted by anyone, and I am leaving this camp feeling completely accepted by every single person in this room.”
- “Some people think of the beach or a vacation when they think of their 'happy place.' I am leaving this camp knowing that RYLA is my happy place.”

For Youth By Youth

WHY GO

- Meet interesting and diverse people
- Hone your leadership skills
- Have a life changing good time
- Experience the largest outdoor ropes course in the Northwest
- Make life long friends
- Leave ready to get involved in your community

Every year one hundred teenagers from around Southern Idaho join together at the College of Southern Idaho for an intensive four-day leadership camp. High school students that are incoming juniors to outgoing seniors are sponsored by Rotary clubs to attend RYLA. The camp is planned and lead by youth who have previously attended RYLA. We say our RYLA camp is

By Youth, For Youth.

The camp is experiential; activities are hands-on and interactive, we avoid classroom style lectures. The leadership training focuses on everyday leadership. To lead, you must believe in your own abilities. Being a leader means you work with others; seeing the world through their eyes. In the process, many life long friendships have been made.
